

2019/2020 After School Classes at SELA

GROUP CLASSES

SELA offers after school classes in a group setting. Each class will have a maximum of 7 children. Group classes run in two semesters (Sept—Jan & Feb—May) with 17 classes per semester. Parents will receive regular updates from the classroom and students will present a capstone project at the end of the second semester.

JuniorK Graduates

Thursday, 3:45—5:45

This one year program is designed just for SELA JuniorK graduates to advance their Spanish study, in a natural progression from what they've already learned at SELA. The focus of this class will be to create, produce and learn the Spanish language in a fun, artistic, and hands-on way!

Intro to Spanish

Wednesday, 3:45—5:45

This beginner level class is for new students, ages 5 through 8, with little to no Spanish exposure. The focus of this class is creativity, self-expression and exploration of various fun themes in Spanish.

Intermediate Spanish

Monday, 3:45—5:45

This intermediate level class is for students with prior Spanish language study, either at SELA or elsewhere. The focus of this class is to expand the use of the Spanish language to include reading, writing, and dialogue.

Advanced Spanish

Tuesday, 3:45—5:45

This advanced level class is for returning students with the goal of fine tuning their natural conversational abilities in Spanish. The focus will be driven by interests of the students in the class, including art, music, sports and more.

Intro to Mandarin

Wednesday, 4:00—5:00

This is a beginner level class for new students, ages 5 through 8, with little to no Mandarin exposure.

PRIVATE TUTORING

SELA offers private tutoring for students looking for a more personalized approach to language study. Classes run in two semesters (Sept—Jan & Feb—May).

Spanish or Mandarin Private Tutoring

Private tutoring classes are one on one and can be tailored to the student's specific needs. Classes run from 3:30p—4:30p or 5:00p—6:00p.
