

2018 Festival Sponsor Form

SATURDAY, MAY 19, 2018

11A – 3P

75 SGT WILLIAM B TERRY DRIVE, HINGHAM

SELA: The International Private School proudly presents the 7th Annual South Shore International Festival to celebrate dance, food, music, crafts and art from cultures around the world. This family-friendly event is attended by families from the local communities on the South Shore. This year’s event is shaping up to be a lot of fun with various performances, food trucks, a touch-a-truck and more! We expect to welcome hundreds of children and families to this fun festival.

The South Shore International Festival is hosted and funded by SELA with the goal of sharing our passion for multicultural education and language learning. The festival is free and open to the public. The Festival will be held our school, with live performances on an outdoor stage and many children activities, making it a great opportunity for local businesses to reach their target audience, at a very local level.
