On Saturday Aug. 16, families gathered at the Hingham Community Playground to celebrate Su Escuela Language Academy's 10th Anniversary. Su Escuela and the school's Parent Association donated a wrought iron bench inscribed with a plaque commemorating the 10 years of academic excellence by Su Escuela Language Academy students. This bench was placed under the shade of a tree in front of a busy sandbox.

"Su Escuela Language Academy dedicates this bench to the families of our community" said Sandra P. Baldeon, Founder of Su Escuela Language Academy. "May you have many years of enjoyment sitting with or watching your children laugh, play and grow." After a brief ceremony, the teachers and staff of Su Escuela Language Academy distributed gift bags, coloring books and balloons to all of the families at the playground while cake was served.

Through generous community donations, benches have been dedicated and placed in various locations in Hingham. Whether placed in memory or in celebration, these benches have grown in popularity as a wonderful way to donate
