

How to Get Involved

Studies have shown that parent involvement positively affects student achievement, and it contributes to higher quality education and better performance of schools. After a couple challenging years, SELA welcomes our families back into the classroom to participate in activities!

Join Parent Forum on Facebook

Have you joined the Parent Forum yet? This is a private Facebook group created specifically for SELA Parents to discuss events, express ideas, share fun family and SELA experiences and pictures, and much more! Email marketing@suescuela.com to request to be added.

Become a Parent Ambassador for an Open House

SELA is always looking for parents who are interested in sharing their passion about the education that their child is receiving here. We are looking for parent ambassadors for SELA's Oct, Nov, Dec, and Jan Open Houses and would appreciate your support! Also be a contact for new or prospective families

Share Your Heritage during National Foreign Language Week March 4-8th 2024

Would you like to share your cultural heritage with the school or your child's classroom? Each year during the first week of March, SELA invites parents to come into the school and give a presentation on their heritage in celebration of National Foreign Language Week.

Come Read at Parent Story Time or Participate in Craft Time

Parent Story and Craft Times are pre-scheduled from October-May in each Infant - JuniorK classroom. During these times, parents are invited to come in and share a story with their child's class in either Spanish or English; or participate in a Curriculum craft activity. In order to allow all families the opportunity to attend, please limit your sign ups to 2 Story Times and 1 Craft Time per child (regardless of which adult will be attending).

Get Involved with the Parent Association (SEPA)

All SELA families are automatically members of the Parent Association and are invited to attend all meetings and participate in all events. SEPA is always looking for volunteers and new ideas. SEPA's main goal is to strengthen the SELA community through fun family events. Meetings are held virtually as well as in person and all are welcome! This is a wonderful way to start getting involved with no/low commitment! Please email selaparentsassociation@gmail.com for more information about how to get involved.

Parent Connection

Are you new to SELA and looking for a family to connect with? The SELA Parent Connection is a committee of the Parent Association which reaches out and helps new families adjust to their child's new learning environment. If you would like a member of our Parent Connection to reach out to your family, simply email selaparentsassociation@gmail.com to get connected!
